23. Cleanliness of premises

Every person to whom there has been allocated any office, area, stand, stall or other place in, on or from which to carry on business, shall at all times keep such office, area, stand, stall or other place and any roadways, gangways or passages adjoining it, neat and clean and shall immediately remove therefrom anything which the General Manager instructs him to remove. No tenant shall sub-let such office, area, stand, stall or other place, without the written consent of the Council, or its assignee and appropriate agreements to be entered into where necessary.

25. Unauthorised activities

No person shall sell, or offer, introduce, hawk with or carry about for sale, any article on the market without the prior permission of the General Manager.

26. Commencement and closing of sales

- (1) Sales shall commence and close on the times as may be determined by the General Manager.

27. Procedure before sales

No article shall be displayed or offered for sale or sold until the provisions of sections 11 and 12, or whichever may be applicable, have been complied with, or unless the deliverer of any article, and the fresh produce agent or other person to whom it has been delivered, have in their possession either the original or a true copy of the documents referred to in the said sections, whichever may be applicable. Any copy of the original shall be deemed to be a true copy, if it is certified as such by the General Manager.

28. Separate sales notes

Every fresh produce agent or consignee that offers articles, shall sell separately and obtain separate market sales notes for every consignment of produce received from, or offered for sale by him on behalf of vendors, notwithstanding the fact that such consignments may be of the same commodity and from the same consigner.

29. Vendors at sales

Except with the prior permission of the General Manager, no vendor shall assist or attempt to assist the General Manager or fresh produce agent with the display or sale of his goods or interfere with or obstruct them in any way. Any instruction that such vendor wants to give regarding such goods shall be given either verbally, or, if so directed by the General Manager, in writing before the sale begins.

30. Auctions by General Manager

Every article offered for sale by public auction shall be auctioned by the General Manager or by a person authorised by him to do so, and no other person shall organise or conduct or attempt to organise or conduct any auction.

31. Delivery note before auction

Before a sale by public auction begins, the fresh produce agent concerned shall hand to the General Manager a true copy of a properly completed delivery note in respect of the articles concerned. The General Manager shall retain all such delivery notes until the expiration of the time allocated to the fresh produce agent for selling the articles entrusted to him.

32. Declaration before auction

Before a sale by public auction begins, the fresh produce agent concerned shall declare to the General Manager the grade, quality, condition, variety and exact quantity of the articles offered for sale. The General Manager shall announce the declaration so made, together with the minimum quantity to be purchased by each buyer, to all persons attending the sale, and such announcement shall constitute the conditions of sale, together with any other conditions as the General Manager may impose from time to time.

33. Market sales note at the auction

- (1) The General Manager shall at the time of a sale by public auction, prepare a market sales note, signed by him and having the following inscribed thereon :
- (a) the number of the delivery note;
  - (b) the full name of the vendor;
  - (c) the name or number of the fresh produce agent;
  - (d) the date on which the sale is held;
  - (e) a description of the article and container;
  - (f) the variety;
  - (g) the grade;
  - (h) the place of origin;
  - (i) the mass (where applicable) and/or quantity received;
  - (j) the quantity available for sale;
  - (k) the quality;
  - (l) the price per unit;
  - (m) the name or number of the buyer;
  - (n) the quantity purchased by each buyer;
  - (o) such other information as he may deem fit to add.
- (2) The General Manager shall provide the fresh produce agent concerned with a copy of every such market sales note as soon as the consignment or part thereof is sold or, if it is not sold, before the General Manager passes on to the next consignment.

34. Procedure at auction

- (1) Every article offered for sale by public auction, shall be deemed to be sold to the highest bidder after the auctioneer knocked down the bid in respect of such article; if the fresh produce agent is willing to accept the price so realised. If not, the fresh produce agent shall declare the reserve price to the auctioneer, and the auctioneer shall announce such price to all persons attending the sale, and the highest bidder may thereafter accept or reject such price. Thereafter, provided the highest bidder accepts the article at the reserve price and does not purchase the whole number, other persons attending the sale, may obtain their requirements at such declared reserve price. Once a price has been declared, as described, it may not be changed for a period of 24 hours, and the original conditions of sale may not be changed in any way, except with the prior permission of the General Manager.
- (2) If the fresh produce agent refuses to accept the highest bid obtained at the sale as a selling price for any article, he shall declare a reserve price. The highest bid, together with the reserve price, shall be inscribed on the market sales note by the auctioneer, and if no sale is made at the reserve price, the words "not sold" shall be inscribed by the auctioneer on the market sales note, which shall then be deemed to be a no sale market note.
- (3) If no offer is made for any article offered for sale, the auctioneer may issue a no offer market note in respect thereof, by inscribing on the market sales note the words "no offer".

35. Controlled price

When the price of an article offered for sale by auction, is controlled or fixed by law, and the price so prescribed, is offered by persons attending the sale, the article shall be sold to the person who first made the bid at the controlled price. Should more than one person make a bid at the controlled price simultaneously, the General Manager shall either cancel the sale by public auction and direct that the article be sold by private treaty by the fresh produce agent concerned at the controlled price to the persons who attend the auction sale, in such a manner that each person receives a fair share of the available supply, or the General Manager may distribute the article in question at the controlled price among the bidders in a manner to be determined by him. No person may withhold such article from sale, unless directed to do so by the General Manager and no person shall offer or sell such article at a price in excess of the maximum controlled price, or offer or sell such article jointly with other articles that are not subject to controlled prices.

36. Alterations in market sales notes

The auctioneer shall initial every alteration on a market sales note, and the General Manager shall, after satisfying himself as to the reason for the alteration, countersign the altered note.

37. Roster of auction sales

Auctions shall be conducted according to a roster prepared by the General Manager in such a manner that every fresh produce agent in turn is given an opportunity to sell first. Every fresh produce agent shall be given a period of time, determined by the General Manager, within which the articles entrusted to him, may be sold. Every consignment shall be offered for sale only once during every round.

38. Re-auctioning

If the auctioneer has knocked an article down to the highest bid, and the sale is confirmed by the fresh produce agent, and the highest bidder has obtained his requirements, and a number of other buyers attending the sale ask to be served at the same price, the auctioneer may put the rest of the consignment up for auction again if, in his opinion, it will be to the advantage of all concerned. No responsibility shall, however, devolve upon the Municipality should a lower price be realised when the article is again put up for sale, but the General Manager or the fresh produce agent shall have the right to place a reserve price equivalent to the original highest bid on the article if a bid lower than the original highest bid is received when the article is re-auctioned.

39. Issue of documents

No person other than the General Manager shall issue or cause to be issued market sales notes or any other documents relating to collections, sales or deliveries. The cost, or portion thereof, attached to all or some of such documents, may be recovered from the fresh produce agents.

40. Time allowed to fresh produce agents

A fresh produce agent shall after he has arranged a specific time for his sales with the General Manager, commence immediately after announcement of his turn, failing which the General Manager may instruct the auctioneer to proceed to the next fresh produce agent.
