

GOVERNMENT NEWS

Together we move South Africa forward

POLICE WARN OF FAKE TRAINEE RECRUITMENT ADS IN SOCIAL MEDIA

- The police have warned of misleading adverts that are circulating in social media about the recruitment of new constables
- The adverts are allegedly being circulated through the WhatsApp platform and via the www.salearnership.com website.
- The aforementioned advertisements form part of a scam aimed at misleading the public and possibly corruptly attempting to enlist candidates into the public service
- Police spokesperson Solomon Makhale said South African Police Service (SAPS) had not advertised for police trainees
- He also added that while the SAPS are looking into the origins of these adverts, we urge those whose are interested in joining the SAPS as trainees, to ignore them”.
- Members of the public interested in joining SAPS, please visit: www.saps.gov.za

government
communications

Department:
Government Communication and Information System
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

