

MMM DONATES MUSIC EQUIPMENT TO SCHOOL

A harmony of jazzy tunes filled Botshabelo on Friday, 06 February when Deputy Executive Cllr. Connie Rampai, accompanied by MMCs and Councillors, handed over a truck-load of new music equipment to Reamohetse High School in Section E.

Mangaung Metro's association with the school began when the Executive Mayor, Cllr. Thabo Manyoni first visited and adopted the school last year. He identified that there was a need to assist the school with music instruments in order to nourish and further develop the existing potential that was witnessed, explained the Deputy Executive Mayor.

"The Executive Mayor delegated myself and MMC for Development Planning and Urban Management Cllr. Papiki Moeng, who is a jazz enthusiast, to work hand in hand and get the project off the ground. This hand over is testimony and fulfilment of the Executive Mayor's promise to the school," said Cllr. Rampai.

She further urged and encouraged the learners to work hard and display their talent through sports and music, adding that "through sports and music, we can achieve much as a country".

Reamohetse's art and music teacher, Mr Mogotloane, under whose tutelage the school's jazz band is being developed and groomed, thanked the Executive Mayor for having executed a promise he made when he visited and adopted the school on 15 January 2014.

He also let it slip that they are currently working on an honorary arts exhibition for the mayor, as a token of appreciation.

"We are certain this will take our jazz band and choir to greater heights that Mangaung will be proud of. We promise to take care of these instruments," Mr Mogotloane said.

Ward councillor, Evodia Sebothelo, in whose ward the Reamohetse High School is situated congratulated and thanked Mr Mogotloane for the good work which helps keep learners away from misdeeds. She urged them to take care of their new possessions.

Deputy Executive Mayor, Cllr. Connie Rampai and Reamohetse High School principal Mr Motheogane.

MMCs Cllr. Maditaba Matsoetlane, Cllr. Moses Sekakanyo and Cllr. Papiki Moeng and Chief of Staff Mr. Leonard Makhanya joined the DEM at the handover ceremony.

The school's jazz band displayed their talents with the new instruments.
