The Executive Mayor hands over the approved plans to the contractor who will work on the pools at Mmabana Stadium in Thaba Nchu.

New swimming pool for Thaba Nchu

The Executive Mayor of Mangaung, Cllr. Thabo Manyoni, recently handed over the approved plans for the construction of a new kiddies swimming pool and refurbishment of the existing one at Mmabana Stadium in Thaba Nchu.

“This is part of our efforts as the city to expose our communities to facilities that they couldn’t access before the dawn of democracy, but also to make sure that our communities are kept healthy. We may even have swimming champions coming out of swimming pools of Mangaung,” said the Executive Mayor.

The construction work will start soon, and 20 unskilled labourers from Thaba Nchu will be employed. The city has since 2012 rejuvenated some pools in its jurisdiction, including those in Heidedal, Bloemanda and at the Free State stadium.

The project is expected to take eight months to complete.

The old rundown pool will be rejuvenated and host competitions once completed.
